

Curriculum Portfolio Updates

PGMEAC April 2024

Heather McDonald-Blumer | Faculty Lead: Curriculum

TEMERTY FACULTY OF MEDICINE
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Temerty
Medicine

PGCorEd Update

- Background:
  - Mandatory modules covering Intrinsic competencies
    - Collaborator
    - Communication with and for patients
    - End of Life Care
    - Health Advocacy and Health systems
    - Leader
    - Patient Safety
    - Professionalism
    - Teaching in Residency
  - Concerns around aging material
    - personnel changes
    - variable reviews (format more than content)
    - resident workload
    - content supplanted by newer curricular initiatives

PGCorEd Update

- PGCorEd Working Group & Curriculum Committee
- Modification:
  - Teaching in residency - to be continued
  - Other modules optional
- Process:
  - PDs and PAs aware
  - Resident notification - next week
  - Website update
  - Follow up with PDs re need to update modules

Chief and Senior Resident Leadership Workshop

- 19th annual CRLW
- Goals:
  - To review key resources available to support resident leaders
  - To support leadership development
  - To provide a collegial environment for exchange of ideas
- Logistics:
  - Thursday, August 15th, 2024 | 8:15 – 12 noon
  - Chestnut Conference Centre
  - In person

Working Agenda

- PGME leadership intro
- PARO
- Review of Resources
  - Office of Indigenous Health
  - Office of Learner Affairs | Learner Experience Unit
  - Career Counselling and planning
  - Board of Examiners
  - Board of Medical Assessors
  - Enrichment programs (CIP, PG Leadership etc....)

Working Agenda

- Leadership
  - Effective time management and goal setting
  - Perspectives on the role of AI in Medicine

- Time to network

Comments and Questions